For Release Tuesday

HOCKEY:

WARRIORS TO HOST CROSS-TOWN RIVAL MCGILL REDMEN

The Loyola Hockey Warriors will play host to the McGill Redmen on Tuesday evening November 30th at 8:00 P.M. at the Loyola Sports Complex.

Loyola mentor Dave Draper has been slightly disappointed with the team's slow start this season (0-1-1 in Q.U.A.A. play). "We are really looking forward to this part of the schedule. We haven't played very many games thus far and we feel that we really need the work in order to get going" said Draper.

BASKETBALL:

WARRIOR CAGERS TO BATTLE MACDONALD

The Macdonald Clansman, fresh from a 86-83 upset win over the McGill Redmen, invade the Sports Complex on Wednesday night, December 1, at 8:00 P.M. to do battle with the Warriors.

The Warriors thus far this season are holding down 1st place in the Q.U.A.A. and are yet to be defeated in non-conference action.

The contest will be highlighted by a showdown between two former Lakeshore high school products, Jim Guild of Macdonald and Wayne Hussey of Loyola. Guild was the sparkplug of last week's upset of McGill while Hussey has nailed down a starting berth in his first year with the Warriors.

Head Coach Doug Daigneault is high in his praise of young Hussey: "Wayne thus far has shown great promise and we feel that if he continues to develop he will become one of the premier guards in Canada".
